PART - 2

DUST OF SNOW

- Robert Frost

The way a snow
Shook down on me
The dust of snow
From a hemlock tree

Has given my heart
A change of mood
And saved some part
Of a day I had saved.

Meaning -

One day the poet Robert Frost was very disturbed and he sat under a hemlock tree, there a snow had come and fallen the dust or particles of snow from leaves on Robert Frost. This situation had changed the mood of the poet and due to this the other part of the day is saved and this was captured in the mind of the poet.

Ques. What is dust of snow? What does the poet has changed? How has the poet's mood changed?

Ans. The 'dust of snow' means the fine particles or flakes of snow. The sudden shower in form of dust of snow changed the poet's mood from sad to happy. He felt refreshed.

Ques. How

Ans. F

a. G

b.

Ques: How does Frost present nature in poem -

Ans: Frost uses the birds that usually named in poems. Do you think Crow is often mentioned in poems. What images come to your mind when you think of a crow.

Ans: Frost present nature in a very different manner.

a. Generally poet takes the birds and trees which are known for their beauty and good qualities like peacock, parrot, cuckoo and trees full of beautiful flowers. But here Frost has taken a totally different approach. He chose a crow, which has black colour and harsh voice and is believed as a symbol of bad omen.

b. Again, what is hemlock tree. Why does not the poet write about more beautiful tree such as maple, oak?
A hemlock tree is a poisonous plant with small white flowers. The poet used hemlock tree and left all the beautiful trees. Actually he did so to present his mood & feeling.

c. What do the 'Crow' and 'hemlock' represent - joy or sorrow. What does the dust of snow that the crow shakes off stand for.
Ans: 'Crow' and 'hemlock' represents sorrow. The dust of snow that the Crow shakes off a hemlock tree stand for the joy.
