

Weathering the Storm in Louisiana

Word

Meaning

Mening → dangerous and harmful

Annoyant → Unceasing, continual

Snaked → moved or flowed along with a twisting motion

Carcases → dead bodies of animals

Revered → held a close relation or friend through his/her death.

Remnants → Small remaining quantities

Melley → dispirited, worried in appearance or character.

Murder → Upstart of a disorderly crowd

Ques: Where did Prashant go seven years after his mother's death? How far was he away from his village?

Ans: Prashant went to meet his friend who lived in a small coastal town called Louisiana. Seven years after his mother's death.

Louisiana was around eighteen kilometers from his village.

Ques: Describe the Prashant's journey to his village.

Ans: Prashant rode through the least deep water and used a stick to locate the road on the journey to his village. He had to swim whenever he lost the road and push away human bodies.

Ques: Describe the devastation caused by the Super cyclone.

Ans: The Super cyclone destroyed many houses and uprooted ancient trees. The continuous rains caused floods due to which many people and animals got injured on hot lives

Ques: How did Proshant feel on the way top? How long did he stay there?

Ans: Proshant felt frozen due to the continuous rain. He also cried and worried about his family's well being from time to time. He was doubtful that his family might not have survived.

Ques: Describe the reaction of Proshant's family on seeing him

Ans: Proshant's family considered his return a miracle. His maternal grandfather rushed to him with his hand's out stressed and eyes brimming. The other family members gathered around him and hugged him in a relief.

Ques: Why did the Proshant go to the Red Cross Shelter?

Ans: Proshant went to the Red Cross Shelter to look for his family members as his home by the was completely destroyed by the cyclone. He knew that he might find someone there.